Loving God

Building Relationships

Responding to the Spirit

From the Pastor's Pen...

Make plans to come see us this weekend at the Heritage Festival! More than just stopping by, plan on spending some time managing the booth, the weather looks to be perfect and it's a fantastic opportunity for service. Additionally, it's my prayer that mission and vision become the focus for the church and each of us individually as well. Over the last few years I have given a ton of "homework" for Lent but this year I want the focus to be on those two areas. We will build on it each week as we dive deep into the sermon on the mount and how to be a Christian.

Have a fantastic week!

Soli Deo Gloria

Saturday from 8 to 5
Sunday from Noon to 5

Our next Ladies Luncheon will be held NEXT WEEK on Wednesday, March 19. We had good participation at the last lunch and are hoping for even better attendance at the coming event. It was a good time for catching up. Please try to come next week. If you are working outside the home and can only make it to eat lunch, that still gives us a chance for a brief visit. Let's get to know each other better, and you can give your ideas as to what you would like to see happen in this group.

This time we plan to put the cross and candles from the altar on a table in the fellowship hall so that they can be polished if anyone would like to do that job after lunch, while visiting. We will provide the necessary gloves, polish and cloths to accomplish the task. So if you are a Martha, who likes to keep busy, or a Mary who enjoys conversation, this time is for you!! Hope to see you there!
